

CRIMINAL JUSTICE TECHNOLOGY

THE CAREER

Individuals who pursue a career in Criminal Justice Technology work as law enforcement officers, correctional officers and correctional office administrators.

CAREER OPTIONS

TCL offers an Associate Degree in Public Service, Criminal Justice Transfer Pathway, and Criminal Justice Technology Certificates including Correctional Office Administration, Law Enforcement Training and Correctional Training. Students who pursue this program can expect to earn $21,807 to $34,582 annually in the Beaufort area. The Associate Degree in Public Service provides a complete survey in the areas of the court system, law enforcement and corrections. The Criminal Justice Transfer Pathway provides students the opportunity to transfer to a baccalaureate criminal justice degree program. The Criminal Justice Technology Certificates (Correctional Office Administrator, Correctional Training, Criminal Justice and Law, Law Enforcement Psychology, and Law Enforcement Training) prepare the student for employment in administrative offices of federal, state, and local correctional institutions, as well as career opportunities in law enforcement. Some courses may be waived if the student has completed study at the SC Criminal Justice Academy or its equivalent.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Criminal Justice program includes courses which provide the student with a complete survey in the areas of the court system, law enforcement and corrections. Electives are offered in specialty areas such as juveniles and the law, and criminalistics.

ADMISSIONS

Students applying to the Criminal Justice Technology program should first complete the college application process. For more information regarding TCL's Criminal Justice Program contact Dr. Ken Flick at 843.525.8238 or kflick@tcl.edu.
