Watercolor

Course Description
This course is an introduction to the transparent American watercolor techniques, emphasizing the creating of landscapes and still-life subjects that utilize appropriate brush techniques and proper color mixing for this medium.

Prerequisite or Co requisite:  None

3 Cr (3 lect/pres, 0 lab, 0 other)

Course Focus
Have you ever wanted to learn to paint in a water-based media? Or, brush up on your color theory. This class is designed for the beginning student artist to help you understand the basic concepts and principles needed to create a three dimensional space on a two dimensional plane and the theory that makes it work such as perspective. Artists that understand these concepts and can implicate them in their work have a greater advantage over other artist in the commercial arena.

Student Contributions
Students are expected to be fully prepared for class by completing all reading assignments in full before the class session. Attendance is a critical factor to success in this class as lecture will enhance students understanding of reading assignments.

Course Evaluation
Your final grade for the course will be determined by the average of all exam/test/quiz scores and completion of all required assignments. Your instructor will share specific details regarding scoring procedures and due dates.

TCL's grading scale is:
90 - 100 = A
80 - 89 = B
70 - 79 = C
60 - 69 = D
Below 60 = F

Course Schedule
The class meets for 3 lecture/presentation hours per week. The content will be introduced in the same order as they are listed in the course goal section. The content goals will be finished in a varied manner.

GRADING METHODOLOGY
The final grade must be 70 or more (a grade “C” or better) in order to pass the course and progress to the next course. Students absent from an examination or presentation will receive a “0” grade for the examination unless other arrangements are made with the individual instructor prior to the examination or presentation day or on the examination or presentation day before the test/presentation is scheduled to be given.

The student is responsible for notifying the instructor for the reason of the absence. It is also the responsibility of the student to contact the appropriate instructor to arrange to make up the examination. Arrangements may be completed by telephone.
If the instructor is not available, a message should be left on the instructor’s voice mail AND with another member of the faculty or administrative assistant. The make-up exam will be scheduled and the instructor will decide the method of examination. Messages sent by other students are unacceptable.
