STUDENT CONTRIBUTION

Each student will spend at least 6 hours per week preparing for class. Attendance is critical in this class. There will be a midterm examination, and a final examination. Each student will provide one research paper and complete all assignments in the Lab. The syllabus is subject to change. All changes will be discussed and students will be accountable for such changes.

COURSE EVALUATION

Your performance objective and exams will be translated to points and the points to grades. There are 100 possible points and grades will be earned as follows:

- A = 90-100
- B = 80-89
- C = 70-79
- D = 60-69

The midterm examination is a comprehensive examination from the chapters 1-6 and consists of 50 multiple-choice, true-false, fill-in the blank, and essay questions. It is valued at 20% of the final grade.

The final examination is a comprehensive examination from chapters 7-13 and consists of 50 multiple-choice, true-false, fill-in the blank, and essay questions. It is valued at 20% of the final grade.

MyCJ Lab

Each student is required to complete pretest, simulation, and posttest for each chapter. Pretest, simulation, and classroom lecture must be completed prior to taking the post test. Lab is valued at 40% of the final grade.

Research

Each student will provide a five page information paper comparing and contrasting a movie (identified by the instructor) and theories from the course. Paper must be in APA format. The research is valued at 20% of the final grade.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT

There is no tolerance at TCL for academic dishonesty and misconduct. The College expects all students to conduct themselves with dignity and to maintain high standards of responsible citizenship.

It is the student's responsibility to address any questions regarding what might constitute academic misconduct to the course instructor for further clarification.

The College adheres to the Student Code for the South Carolina Technical College System. Copies of the Student Code and Grievance Procedure are provided in the TCL Student Handbook, the Division Office, and the Learning Resources Center.

ATTENDANCE

The College's statement of policy indicates that students must attend ninety percent of total class hours or they will be in violation of the attendance policy.

- Students not physically attending class during the first ten calendar days from the start of the semester must be dropped from the class for NOT ATTENDING.
- Students taking an online/internet class must sign in and communicate with the instructor within the first ten calendar days from the start of the semester to indicate attendance in the class. Students not attending class during the first ten calendar days from the start of the semester must be dropped from the class for NOT ATTENDING.
- Reinstatement requires the signature of the division dean.

In the event it becomes necessary for a student to withdraw from the course OR if a student stops attending class, it is the student's responsibility to initiate and complete the necessary paperwork. Withdrawing from class may have consequences associated with financial aid and time to completion.

When a student exceeds the allowed absences, the student is in violation of the attendance policy. The instructor MUST withdraw the student with a grade of "W", "WP", or "WF" depending on the date the student exceeded the allowed absences and the student's progress up to the last date of attendance under extenuating circumstances and at the discretion of the faculty member teaching the class, allow the student to continue in the class and make-up the work. This exception must be documented at the time the allowed absences are exceeded.

Absences are counted from the first day of class. There are no "excused" absences. All absences are counted, regardless of the reason for the absence.

- A student must take the final exam or be excused from the final exam in order to earn a non-withdrawal grade.

A copy of TCL's STATEMENT OF POLICY NUMBER: 3-1-307 CLASS ATTENDANCE (WITHDRAWAL) is on file in the Division Office and in the Learning Resources Center.
