Course Goals
Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Design a physical and social environment that reflects knowledge of current growth and development research (including brain research) and meets the needs of children and families. (NAEYC 1a, 1b, 1c, 4a, 4b, 4d)
2. Describe how caregiving routines are infant/toddler curriculum. (NAEYC 1a, 3a-d, 4b, 5c, 6b)
3. Discuss how infant/toddler curriculum reflects the individual child’s needs and interests. (NAEYC 1a, 5c)
4. Discuss how infant/toddler programs can function as a caring family community. (NAEYC 1c, 4a, 4b)
5. Explain how an infant/toddler curriculum is based on the knowledge of children’s families. (NAEYC 1c, 2a-c, 4a, 4b, 4d)
Course Outcomes and Competencies:

Intended Course Outcome #3: Students will be able to observe, document, and assess young children and explain how appropriate assessment supports young children and families.

Course Competency 3d: Students will be able to demonstrate responsible assessment to promote positive outcomes for each child, including the use of assistive technology for children with disabilities.

Performance Measurement Instrument and Success criteria: Students will successfully examine an early childhood environment using the Infant Toddler Environmental Rating Scale.

Student Contributions
For this course to run properly, the student is expected to be prepared for each class including, but not limited to, reading assignment, weekly lab observations and completing class activities and assignments. Attendance is a great contributor to student success in this course.

ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT
There is no tolerance at TCL for academic dishonesty and misconduct. The College expects all students to conduct themselves with dignity and to maintain high standards of responsible citizenship.

It is the student’s responsibility to address any questions regarding what might constitute academic misconduct to the course instructor for further clarification.

The College adheres to the Student Code for the South Carolina Technical College System. Copies of the Student Code and Grievance Procedure are provided in the TCL Student Handbook, the Division Office, and the Learning Resources Center.

ATTENDANCE
The College’s statement of policy indicates that students must attend ninety percent of total class hours or they will be in violation of the attendance policy.
• Students not physically attending class during the first ten calendar days from the start of the semester must be dropped from the class for NOT ATTENDING.
• Students taking an online/internet class must sign in and communicate with the instructor within the first ten calendar days from the start of the semester to indicate attendance in the class. Students not attending class during the first ten calendar days from the start of the semester must be dropped from the class for NOT ATTENDING.
• Reinstatement requires the signature of the division dean.

In the event it becomes necessary for a student to withdraw from the course OR if a student stops attending class, it is the student’s responsibility to initiate and complete the necessary paperwork. Withdrawing from class may have consequences associated with financial aid and time to completion.

• When a student exceeds the allowed absences, the student is in violation of the attendance policy. The instructor MUST withdrawal the student with a grade of “W”, “WP”, or “WF” depending on the date the student exceeded the allowed absences and the student’s progress up to the last date of attendance or
• Under extenuating circumstances and at the discretion of the faculty member teaching the class, allow the student to continue in the class and make-up the work. This exception must be documented at the time the allowed absences are exceeded.
• Absences are counted from the first day of class. There are no "excused" absences. All absences are counted, regardless of the reason for the absence.
• A student must take the final exam or be excused from the final exam in order to earn a non-withdrawal grade.
• A copy of TCL’s STATEMENT OF POLICY NUMBER: 3-1-307 CLASS ATTENDANCE (WITHDRAWAL) is on file in the Division Office and in the Learning Resources Center.

GRADING METHODOLOGY
The final grade must be 70 or more (a grade “C” or better) in order to pass the course and progress to the next course. Students absent from an examination or presentation will receive a “0” grade for the examination unless other arrangements are made with the individual instructor prior to the examination or presentation day or on the examination or presentation day before the test/presentation is scheduled to be given.

The student is responsible for notifying the instructor for the reason of the absence. It is also the responsibility of the student to contact the appropriate instructor to arrange to make up the examination. Arrangements may be completed by telephone.
If the instructor is not available, a message should be left on the instructor’s voice mail AND with another member of the faculty or administrative assistant. The make-up exam will be scheduled and the instructor will decide the method of examination. Messages sent by other students are unacceptable.
