ECO 210 CORE CURRICULUM COMPETENCIES

All courses approved for the general education core curriculum help students develop communication skills and/or critical thinking.

This course develops communication skills by requiring the use of the formal register when participating in class discussions. Students will be required to write posts on issues on the discussion board.

This course develops critical thinking skills in macroeconomics in areas related to global economies, money, fluctuations and policy. Students are expected to employ evidence that they understand the thesis in class discussions. Students will also demonstrate critical thinking through assignments, quizzes and exams. A final examination also tests critical thinking ability.

GRADING METHODOLOGY
The final grade must be 70 or more (a grade “C” or better) in order to pass the course and progress to the next course. Students absent from an examination or presentation will receive a “0” grade for the examination unless other arrangements are made with the individual instructor prior to the examination or presentation day or on the examination or presentation day before the test/presentation is scheduled to be given.
The student is responsible for notifying the instructor for the reason of the absence. It is also the responsibility of the student to contact the appropriate instructor to arrange to make up the examination. Arrangements may be completed by telephone.

If the instructor is not available, a message should be left on the instructor’s voice mail AND with another member of the faculty or administrative assistant. The make-up exam will be scheduled and the instructor will decide the method of examination. Messages sent by other students are unacceptable.
