TECHNICAL COLLEGE OF THE LOWCOUNTRY
PHLEBOTOMY
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

2. Pre-Test WorkKeys: Locating Information, Applied Math & Reading for Information prior to registering for class. All three tests are free and must be taken in one week. Students must score a minimum Level 5 on all three tests.

3. Purchase individual student Malpractice Insurance to cover the length of the course.

5. Tuition: $799.00.

6. Textbooks (2) purchased on line from FA Davis

7. Student clinical picture badge $7.00. for hospital rotation.

8. Attendance: Must attend 90% of classroom lectures. May not miss any clinical days.

9. Passing average of 80% on all exams.

10. ASPT exam fee of $85.00 upon completion of course and clinicals.

11. Uniform (scrubs) or lab coat required for classroom and clinicals.

12. Clinicals take place Monday through Friday during day hours. Some limited evening hours are available at the hospital.

13. The following laboratory work must be completed prior to clinical at clinical site:
   a. Tuberculin (TB) two-step skin test results within 3 months of clinical
   b. Rubella (measles) test results. If result is negative (no antibodies detected), bring evidence of MMR immunization.
   c. Evidence of receiving Hepatitis B vaccine or signed declination statement.
   d. Varicella Zoster (chicken pox). History of disease or 2 dose vaccine or positive titer.
   e. Tetanus/Diptheria documentation within preceding 10 years.
   f. Annual Influenza injection between October and March required by clinical site.

Update, May, 2015