Multi-Skilled Maintenance

The Technical College of the Lowcountry presents Multi-Skilled Maintenance classes at the Colleton Campus.

Students will learn:
- General Safety Discussion
- Introduction to Hand Tools
- Introduction to basic mathematics
- Introduction to measuring instruments
- Introduction to basic electricity – theory – conductors – insulators
- Introduce machinery electrical controls
- Introduce Pneumatic and Hydraulic – theory and practice
- Troubleshooting problems
- And More

Prerequisite: Bronze level – Work Keys assessment

Dates/Times:
November 5 through December 19
Mondays and Wednesday, 1:00p – 4:00p

Cost: $595 - Includes Work Keys Testing
Prerequisite: Bronze level Work Keys assessment

For information and registration:
Billy O’Neal
843-525-8369
boneal@tcl.edu

Rhonda Johns
843-538-1613
rjohns@tcl.edu

Jayne Goff
843-525-8205
jgoff@tcl.edu

www.tcl.edu/ce