The Technical College of the Lowcountry recognizes the need to ensure that essential computer resources are available to educational programs and to administrative functions of the College. Procedures for establishing priorities for allocation of computer resources must reflect the College’s mission, priorities and objectives. Where possible, students should be encouraged to use the available computer resources.