Continuing Education (CE) classes are self-sustaining and instructors are contracted for and materials ordered based on enrollments. CE refunds are made according to the following CE Refund Policy:

1. Applications for refund must be received prior to the beginning of a class.

2. Non-attendance is not a condition for refund.

3. Full refunds are granted only for course cancellations.

4. Any exception will be made only by the Vice President for Academic Affairs.