A student may drop or swap a course during the official drop/swap period. Courses dropped during this period shall not appear on the student's transcript.

The time periods for other than fifteen-week semester classes will be pro-rated based on the length of the term.