At TCL, we know that keeping children safe is serious business. That is why we have rules about children on campus. In fact, the college policy on Page 43 of the 2011-2012 Catalog/Student Handbook reads:

“In order to promote an environment conducive to teaching and learning and to ensure that children are not left unattended or disrupt college classes or services, faculty, staff, and students shall not bring children to work or class even if the children are being watched by someone else while the employee is working or the student is in class. The College cannot assume the responsibility for supervision of children of faculty, staff or students.”

We understand that unexpected things come up at the last minute from time to time. However, safety is of the utmost importance and children cannot be left unattended, even for a few seconds. For that reason, you should arrange for someone to take care of your children off-campus while you are at TCL.

Assistance with childcare may be available for eligible students through TCL’s New Horizons program. For more information, please call (843)470-5961.
