The staff at the TCL Financial Aid Office can use professional judgment to make adjustments on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) because of unusual circumstances. To be considered, you will have to provide enough documentation to support the adjustment. The Financial Aid Administrator's decision as to whether or not to make changes is final and cannot be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education or any other entity. Listed below are EXAMPLES of circumstances that can sometimes warrant a review. Other circumstances and may also be considered. Documentation must be attached at the time of submitting this form in order for a request to reviewed.

Reason for Appeal:

- Unemployment of student/spouse/parent in 2016.
- Death of parent/spouse after completing the 16-17 FAFSA
- Divorce (or pending divorce) of parents/spouse after the student has filed the 16-17 FAFSA
- A parent/student/spouse lost the job that she/he held in 2015 and is now employed in a lower-paying position.
- A parent, student, or spouse was working full-time in 2015 but is only working part-time now.
- Disability of student/spouse/parent.
- Unusual and necessary medical/dental expenses.

*****Documentation Must be Provided See Page Two (2) for Examples*******
Request will not be considered without documentation attached. Documentation should verify or prove what you state as your reason for the appeal. Failure to provide adequate documentation will result in your review being denied.

Review Timeline:

Financial Aid Administrators will attempt to review your submission as quickly as possible. Normal processing time can take up to ten business days. Notification will be sent to your TCL Student Email Account after the review is complete. Submission of the form with your signature verifies that you have read the procedures above and that all your statements are true and accurate.
