

TECHNICAL COLLEGE OF THE LOWCOUNTRY

POLICY: Student Role in Decision Making

Number: 4.4.4

Responsible Department: Student Services

Updated: July 22, 2026

November 1, 2023

The Technical College of the Lowcountry recognizes the role of students in the decision-making process at the institution. Students are provided the opportunity for involvement through membership in a variety of institutional committees and for self-governance and direction-setting through participation in the Student Leadership Council. The Student Leadership Council contributes to co-curricular programming and provides students the opportunity to develop and practice leadership skills. Designated Student Services staff provide assistance and supervision for all student activities.
