

Rights and Responsibilities of the Financial Aid

Recipient

As a student financial aid consumer, you have the right to:

- Information about financial aid application procedures, cost of attendance, aid available, and renewal requirements as well as about the Technical College of the Lowcountry (TCL) academic programs and policies.
- Confidential protection of your financial aid records. The contents of your financial aid file are maintained in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.
- Request a review of decisions made by the Technical College of the Lowcountry financial aid office staff. A letter discussing your situation in detail, and the decision you wish to have reviewed, should be submitted in writing to the Director of Financial Aid, Technical College of the Lowcountry, P.O. Box 1288, Beaufort, SC 29901-1288

You have the responsibility to:

- Complete applications correctly and on time.
- Read and understand all materials sent to you from the Financial Aid Office and other financial aid agencies by e-mail and/or letter. Keep copies of all forms and materials submitted.
- Know and comply with the rules governing your aid programs.
- Maintain a current mailing address and phone number as well as your assigned student email account.
- Comply with the provisions of any promissory note and all other agreements you sign.
- Register for the number of credits required and maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress.
- Request personal assistance if you have questions or do not understand the information provided to you.

The Technical College of the Lowcountry is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for all qualified applicants for admissions or employment without regard to race, gender, national origin, age, religion, marital status, veteran status, disability, or political affiliation or belief.
